Hangs the Moon

Arkells

I turn to you
Whenever Iâ€™m hurt
And I hang on you and your every word
Youâ€™re rarely wrong, I hate to put up a fight
Youâ€™re rarely wrong, this time you might
Every boy in this town would jump at the chance
But non on could love you like I can

And its you who hangs the moon
Can we talk soon

You think itâ€™s odd, just a big risk
Youâ€™ve been wanting me,
Wonâ€™t always look like this
You think I canâ€™t be honest with myself
You think my love might drift somewhere else
Every boy in this town would jump at the chance
But no one could love you like I can

And itâ€™s you who hangs the moon
Can we talk soon (x3)
