One Time

Trouble Andrew

One time, one time was enough.
You do it one time again, and I might have to give you up.
Two times, two times now I'm stuck, cause you two-timed me again and I didn't break it up (we keep on making up).

You cheat on me like you don't need a friend.
You cheat on me so I'm gonna leave again.
You cheat on me like you don't need a friend.
You cheat on me.

Three times, you had to push your luck.
Yeah, you fooled me once again, and it just keep on adding up.
One time I though that this was love.
But you've been doing me wrong all along, yeah I guess I like it rough.
I just can't get enough.

You cheat on me like you don't need a friend.
You cheat on me so I'm gonna leave again.
You cheat on me like you don't need a friend.
You cheat on me. x2

I think I've had enough, don't want to get in touch.
Don't call me when it tough, so I can pick you up.
I think I've had enough, I tried to fix it up.
But now I'm backing up.
Don't try to act ?.

You cheat on me like you don't need a friend.
You cheat on me so I'm gonna leave again.
You cheat on me like you don't need a friend.
You cheat on me. x2
