It Can Never Be the Same

You can never be the same to me
And you should never hide your shame from me
'Cause you, yeah, you will always be the blame for me
That's a perfect creepy game for meIt can never be the same
I don't know why
It can never be the same
I don't know whyThe truth can break, bruise and lose in you
This flu is the thing that makes and breaks what's you
You, yeah, you will always be the same to me
You, yeah, you will always be the same to meIt can never be the same
I don't know why
It can never be the same
I don't know whyI'm talking to you
I'm talking to you
I'm talking to you
I'm talking to you
I'm talking to youIt can never be the same
I don't know why
It can never be the same
I don't know why
It can never be the sameIt can never be the same
It can never be the same
