Days Like This

Matthew Santos

You know you gotta see it gotta see it to believe it, it was a man with no agenda to define him,he don't got nothing just a smile that he's given,loud as a flowerYou know you gotta see it gotta see it to believe it,it was a man with nothing on his mind,witness the clarity, transparent rarity,free as a sparrowDays like this that hold me and bless with a kiss of the rain here on my brow,here I am in the here and now,where I'll give you the shirt off my back, yes I'll give you the shirt off my back,yes I will,(whoah..) yes I willYou know you gotta see it
it was a man with nothing heavy on his heart,he don't want nothing just the air that he's breathing,light as a featherYou know they want to steal it they want to steal his secret cause they don't believe that they already got it in their hearts and if they can't steal it, they're gonna try and kill it,why?Days like this that hold me and bless with a kiss of the rain here on my brow,here I am in the here and now,where I'll give you the shirt off my backDays like this that hold me and bless with a kiss of the snow here on my brow,here I am in the here and now,where I'll give you the shirt off my back,yes I'll give you the shirt off my back,yes I will,oohh-oohh,yes I will
