

Salvation

Scanners

Went to the sea, but the tide was out
Stood on the shore, but the wind was cold
Waited around till no one about Thought of my spirit till my head took hold whoaaaaa ooooooh (2x)

Looked to my heart, but my heart was empty
Looked the ground, but the road was long
But now I found my new salvation
It's so new the old ones young

(whoaaaaa ooooooh)

I've been waiting for the dark to come

(whoaaaaa ooooooh)

My temptation and salvation

(whoaaaaa ooooooh)

I've been waiting for the tide to turn

(whoaaaaa ooooooh)

Dark eyes become divine
I need the love I crave
Your hands they burn like mine
