

Glorious Day and the Magical Train

Echo Orbiter

Alone outside in the park staring at the sun
Think back at the days and tales that spun
Now there's none

Sunglasses amidst the grass and blinding light
Ever so high

Smoke screen and everyone screams
Flashing lights to complete the scene
Take a ride
Take a ride

Step onto the magical train
Turn on and excite your brain
Now you can see

The time has come for everyone to stare at the sun
And take it away
