

Our Destiny(Symphonic Power / Gothic Metal)

Epica

So many days we've spent together
Trying to get ahead with our dreams
Now we have come to the goal forgotten
Hurting within left us tornThe road is open
We find our way though ties where broken
So the means to the end
Was the peace that was meant
To be ours since it all beganWe fight to winI won't give up, we'll fight to win
To move along from were we'd been
I'll sing this song for you again
I'm looking up around the bend
We're so much stronger than before
Our fraying edges on the mend
Life as we know would be so different
Had our paths continued the same
Seizing the day with all that's offered
The good and the bad,
The clear and the hazeThe road is open
We find our way though ties where broken
So the means to the end
Was the peace that was meant
To be ours since it all beganWe fight to winI won't give up, we'll fight to win
To move along from were we'd been
I'll sing this song for you again
I'm looking up around the bend
We're so much stronger than before
Our fraying edges on the mend
To move along from where we'd been
I'll sing this song for you again
I won't give up, we'll fight to win
We're so much stronger than before
Our fraying edges on the mendDon't let go
Don't let go
Don't let goSo hard to face what we've done wrong
We shared a life that can't be
We cannot hide from destiny
So hard to face what had gone wrong
We've got to make this work
And give it our all(Give our all and won't let go

Waiting so long for an answer
Give our all and won't let go - We've been waiting oh, so very long and Waiting so long - Now we're ready to accept our fate)I won't give up, we'll fight to win
To move along from where we'd been
I'll sing this song for you again
I'm looking up around the bend
We're so much stronger than before
Our fraying edges on the mend(I won't give up this fight, the sacrifices made, we gave our all and won't let it go to die in vain) Our melodies will be remembered forever and ever (I'll sing this song again, we're stronger than before, we have a chance of lifetime, we'll never close this door)
Our memories will fade away when the leaves have reached the soil
