The Big Dream

David Lynch

I'm waiting hereCan't we draw never fulfill these here
I move nowhere only to find you here
Your deepest hell, never the same as them
Keep me low where the horizon meltsI'm waiting hereWe made love
Under a dark moon
I've burned a lot of bridges
Some castles were made of sand
Only thenCan I alone look at the sky my dear
I am not every falling star
Make a wish, it will turn away
So we can love on til infinityHere
I'm waiting hereHere
I'm waiting here
