One Bell

Ari Herstand

In the very beginning I fell For so long Id been waiting for one bell But a sleigh ride came through on the back there was you tugging the horses to halt You glanced right at me asked to play harmony with one bellWe know just one bell wont suffice
each note comes in pairs just like dice
For harmony I can see no one else but you and meI jumped on hesitantly but I fell Holding on very gently to my bell You turned back to me said dont get too comfy right here
This ride was for me thanks for the company
my dear
Youre stops just up there Without me you can share one bellWe know just one bell wont suffice
each note comes in pairs just like dice
For harmony I can see no one else but you and meI ring my bell right beside You hold your bell locked inside
So Ill burn down this Christmas tree Set fire to this harmony of bellsThe beginning has come to an end I once fallen so madly now spent I have learned to turn off all my feelings and block my bellI cant push you to ring I have tried now it stings to tellIts now your new beginning you fell Coming back to me ringing your bell Thanks to you I cant fall Ive put back up my wall
with one bellWe know just one bell wont suffice

For harmony I can see no one else but you and me
