Beautiful Things

Emm Gryner

You walked into the room
And assumed the whole world spins for you
Like all of the stars in your yard
I'm just singin' for a getaway carAnd all the headline news
Just gives me the blues
And so do you
I came here out of love
But it ain't enough
You're going on and on and onYou say, "Times they've changed
Every thing's so messed up and strange"
You say, "Times they've changed"
I said, "Yes I know but some beautiful things remain"So come down to the show tonight
Stand in the back I'll make you feel alright
Come on be strong the 70's are dead and goneYou say, "Times they've changed
Every thing's so messed up and strange"
You say, "Times they've changed
What do you do in this day and age"
You say, "Times they've changed"
I said, "Yes I know but some beautiful things remain"Like tripping over love in June
Singing just to make it through
I know when I've had enough of you
You're wasting all my time my precious timeI'll be running at the speed of light
While you work out who's wrong and right
I came here out of love but it ain't enough
So I'll go on and on and onYou say, "Times they've changed
Every thing's so messed up and strange"
You say, "Times they've changed
What do you do in this day and age"You say, "Times they've changed
Every thing's so messed up and strange"
You say, "Times they've changed"
I said, "Yes I know but some beautiful things remain"I know
I said, "Yes I know but some beautiful things remain"
