Take Me Away

Inside a second you can hear a flower growing in the wind
But does it reach you when there's darkness all around?
How many days will this go on?
How many thoughts can I obsess?
Why do we come apart
And watch it all go down?Take me away, I can't deny it
And all that I want is to touch the sky
Show me the way, a simple mind
And no one can say it can't be doneI see it shining on the sun
A road that leads beyond this place
A way to push aside the walls that block our path
If time can truly be a lie
There's nothing left but you and I
Denying everything and shattering the glassTake me away, I can't deny it
And all that I want is to touch the sky
Show me the way, a simple mind
And no one can say it can't be doneOut of mind, out of time
All alone, stuck at home
Can't decide, full of pride
I want it allLeft to be only me
Far away, everyday
Sanity, vanity
I want it allSymbolize, separation
Let me be, set me freeTake me away, I can't deny it
And all that I want is to touch the sky
Just show me the way, a simple mind
And no one can say it can't be doneTake me away
Take me away
Take me away
Take me away
