

You Wouldn't Know

HELLYEAH

You couldn't be
You couldn't be me even if you wanted to
Every thing I've been through, You wouldn't know

Live your life
Soaking up, all my sunshine
And smile your whole life
I wouldn't knowEighteen wheels are rollin'
Eighteen wheels are crushin' me down
Runnin' me down
Cars are crashin'

Cars are crashin' all around me
Runnin' me down
All my days are numbered
All my days are grey
All my skies are covered
All my ends are frayedYou couldn't be
You couldn't be me even if you wanted to
Every thing I've been through, You wouldn't know

Live your life
Soaking up, all my sunshine
And smile your whole life
I wouldn't knowLightning's crashin'
Thunder's rollin' all around me
Bringin' me down
Stars are fallin'
Fire's lightin' all around me
Burnin' me down
All my days are numbered
All my days are grey
All my skies are covered
All my ends are frayedYou couldn't be
You couldn't be me even if you wanted to
Every thing I've been through, You wouldn't know

Live your life
Soaking up, all my sunshine
And smile your whole life
I wouldn't know
(You wouldn't know)
(You wouldn't know)

(You wouldn't know)
(You wouldn't know)Feels like I'm fallin' down
Inside a fever risin'
Bury my life deep in the ground
Left my existence lying
So let's goYou couldn't be
You couldn't be me even if you wanted to
Every thing I've been through, You wouldn't know
Live your life
Soaking up, all my sunshine
And smile your whole life
You couldn't be
You couldn't be me even if you wanted to
Every thing I've been through, You wouldn't know
