

I'm Not Tryin' to Hear That

Megan Joy

Hold up
Let me get this straight, you're trynna make a play baby
Give up
Not a one time girl, you're talkin' to a lady
I put up
With your kind before but no more, no more so maybe
You should man up and shut up cause I'm done, son
Wake up
If you think I'm easy boy you must be dreamin'
Grow up
Not every girl you meet thinks you're the bomb, believe it
I'm fed up
With guys like you just schemin', cheatin', leavin'
So back up, that's what's up and I'm done, son
Call me up at 2am
Say you're only lookin' for a friend
No, I'm not that kinda girl
So don't you call back cause I'm not tryin' to hear that Watch out
You cross the line this time and I'm comin' out swingin'
I found out
About Marie, Denise, Britney and Christine there's no doubt you're all out of excuses
So just get the hell out before I pop you in the mouth Hop out
that's true, I assume that's what you always do
Day in and day out
And now I'm livin' like a villain, baby
Eat your heart out
I don't have time for little boys who just can't figure it out, so I'm out
Call me up at 2am
Say you're only lookin' for a friend
No, I'm not that kinda girl
So don't you call back cause I'm not tryin' to hear that
No matter what you do, no matter what you say
I will never be giving you the time of day
Call me up at 2am
Say you're only lookin' for a friend
No, I'm not that kinda girl
So don't you call back cause I'm not tryin' to hear that
