Always Tomorrow

Kuschelrock

Tomorrow do do do do dee da dee dee da
Do do do do tomorrow
Like a bird, spreading it's wings looking over the world
Oh at so many dreamers below
I knock wood, something about to be something I know
Oh I'm thinking it's all gonna be good
Time takes time and it's so hard to wait
When you feel like it's not moving on
Time takes patience and a whole lotta faith
When you feel like it's gone
There's always tomorrow, the sun always rises
Sometimes the future is full of surprises
It's gonna be alright, just look on the bright side
It's coming, I'm sure of just one thing
There's always tomorrow
Do do do do tomorrow
Do do do do tomorrow
Do do do do tomorrow
Do do do do tomorrow
Like the stars shining their stuff watching over us now
Oh and that's what I'm talking about
And my heart beats like a drum cause it knows what's in store
Oh a new day that promises more
Here's why I go this way, cause I can
Got an optimistic attitude
If I don't feel like hope has a chance
Tell me what's a girl gonna do?
There's always tomorrow, the sun always rises

Sometimes the future is full of surprises
It's gonna be alright, just look on the bright side
It's coming, I'm sure of just one thing
There's always tomorrow
There's always tomorrow, yeah I can taste it
Just gotta let go, it could be outrageous
The thrill of what might be, the possibilities
Are waiting, you know they can change and there's always tomorrow
Time takes time and it's so hard to wait
When you feel like it's not moving on

Time takes patience and a whole lotta faith
When you feel like it's, when you feel like it's gone
There's always tomorrow, the sun always rises
Sometimes the future is full of surprises
It's gonna be alright, just look on the bright side
It's coming, I'm sure of just one thing
There's always tomorrow
There's always tomorrow, yeah I can taste it
Just gotta let go, it could be outrageous
The thrill of what might be, the possibilities
Are waiting, you know they can change and there's always tomorrow
There's always tomorrow, the sun always rises
Sometimes the future is full of surprises
It's gonna be alright, just look on the bright side
It's coming, I'm sure of just one thing
There's always tomorrow
There's always tomorrow, yeah I can taste it
Just gotta let go, it could be outrageous
The thrill of what might be, the possibilities
Are waiting, you know they can change and there's always tomorrow
