Crying

Clay Aiken

I was alright for a while I could smile for a while But I saw you last night You held my hand so tight As you stopped to say hello You wished me well You couldn't tell That I'd been crying over you Crying over you and you said, "So long" And left me standing all alone Alone and crying, crying, crying, crying It's hard to understand That the touch of your hand Can start me crying I thought that I was over you But it's true, oh, so true I love you even more than I did before But, darling, what can I do? You don't love me And I'll always be Crying over you, crying over you Yes, now, now that you're gone And from this moment on I'll be crying, crying, crying, crying Crying, crying, crying, crying You left me crying, crying, crying Crying, crying alone and crying
