

Workin' Man Blues (Re-Recorded)

Merle Haggard

It's a big job just gettin' by with nine kids and a wife
I been a workin' man dang near all my life
I'll be working long as my two hands are fit to use
I'll drink my beer in a tavern

Sing a little bit of these working man blues I keep my nose on the grindstone, I work hard every day
Might get a little tired on the weekend, after I draw my pay
But I'll go back workin', come Monday morning I'm right back with the crew
I'll drink a little beer that evening

Sing a little bit of these working man blues Hey hey, the working man, the working man like me
I ain't never been on welfare, that's one place I won't be 'Cause I'll be working long as my two hands are fit to use
I drink a little beer in a tavern

Sing a little bit of these working man blues Sometimes I think about leaving, do a little bummin' around
I want to throw my bills out the window catch a train to another town
But I go back working I gotta buy my kids a brand new pair of shoes
Yeah drink a little beer in a tavern
Cry a little bit of these working man blues
