Wild One

Nikki Lane

(Verse)
Well you got all the ammunition one could ever need to bring me down
If you got such a great ambition, then honey why are you still hanging around?
Why don't you go on out on the open road and give it all away?
It don't matter to you if there's hell to pay(Chorus)
Cause you're a wild one
You're a good time
But you're a long shot
And honey you're way out of line
You're just a big talker
You just don't do what you say
And you're gonna be better off alone anyway(Verse)
So, go on tell me all about the essence of exactly who I am
Cause I know that I hurt you bad and honey I'm just dying to understand
Why don't you go on out on the open road and give it all away?
It don't matter to you if there's hell to pay(Chorus)
Cause you're a wild one
You're a good time
But you're a long shot
And honey you're way out of line
You're just a big talker
You just don't do what you say
And you're gonna be better off alone anyway
