Angel

T.S.O.L.

Empty arms torn apart
Angel walked out, left me broken heart
Everyday I take the blame
I let my whole world slip awayI had an angel
That time was everything to me
In the beginning we were, we were foreverClouds in my future
Now all alone I'm in the rain
The pain, it whispers my nameEmpty arms torn apart
Angel walked out, left me broken heart
Everyday I take the blame
I let my whole world slip awayNever so lonely
Alone I'm locked down in this cage, the key
She took it from meSomeone release me
I've done my time, now set me free
Oh, I need, I need someone to help me againEmpty arms torn apart
Angel walked out, left me broken heart
Everyday I take the blame
I let my whole world slip awayI remember when we were lost back then
Lost in time on our own
I'll see your face forever
Your eyes, your touch I'll never
When I'll never feel again, I'll never feel againEmpty arms torn apart
Angel walked out, left me broken heart
Everyday I take the blame
I let my whole world slip awayEmpty arms torn apart
Angel walked out, left me broken heart
Everyday I take the blame
I let my whole world
My whole world slip away
