All of the Angels

Tears for Fears

it's not suicide or amnesia guess i'll kiss and tell, kiss and tell if you do decide at your leisure they can weave their spell, weave their spellall of the angels calling us home
we leave tomorrow
we leave everything we ownand i will be sad as i'm leaving as they take my hand, take my hand we won't criticize others leaving we will understand, understand yeahall of the angels
calling us home
we leave tomorrow
we leave everything we own
yeah, yeah, yeah
all of the angels
calling us home
everything we own
everything we ownsay goodbye to the world and it's false conclusions know that time is a wall and one more illusion
come alive with the songs and their live concretions leave the keys in the car we won't go very farif you realize they are with you and they're here today, here today with the secret prize they will give you it will be ok, be ok
yeah, yeah, yeah
all of the angels
calling us home

everything we own
everything we own
everything we own
everything we own
everything we ownall of the angels
