Alone with You

Connie Smith

I'd love to be around you when the lonely night surround you
How I'd love to be alone with you
What I'd give to have the power to read your mind one hour
How I'd love to be alone with you
Now just to be with you one night you and me alone
Kiss your lips and hold you tight and have you for my own
Well this could be a real beginning could be a joy unending
How I'd love to be alone with youI'd love to be around you when the lonely night surround you
Man I'd love to be alone with you
If I only knew for certain I'd cut out all my flirtin'
How I'd love to be alone with you
Now just to be with you one night you and me alone
Kiss your lips and hold you tight and have you for my own
Well won't you try be my baby just once and then well maybe
I could always be alone with you yeah I could always be alone with you
