

Chaos Sequence

Verge of Umbra

Chaos Sequence

chorus

Wish I could find peace of mind and freeze time in this chaotic life

Verse 1

Entropy was here in essence and it brought discord and trouble
In less than a fraction of a second everything that was built was brought to a rubble
And everybody round coulda neva bring it back to the order it was before
Untamed, unchained, unpredictable, under mercy of the world

There's hope and comfort knowing that it's for a purpose. Eliminating all the doubt that has unearth us. The grand finale no time fi dilly dally. The fact that yo da mi bally a wa politely tell yo sorry. The grand scheme the bigger picture life awaits. The sequences eena the numbers clearly calculates predestined premonitions, free will the choice fi change. No need to live the ills of being shackled by the chains.

Chorus

Thoughts of a new life burnt to crisp cause the whole a man kind caught in the abyss. Wi got serial killers in the school with the kids, psychopaths chilling in the room with your friends. Not too far from Dooms day. But a bullet and a gun is the fool's way. When the evil tek ova the people a feel the darkness ova like blue grey.

New wave movement saving a thousand youth lives
Would not have done so if she wasn't used as a child
So I am careful how I analyze the damage already done
It's the chaos at the quantum level that brings the order above
I am grateful for the comprehension my mind can afford
Decay and reconstruction for my eyes to adore
I hope to never forget the completeness I will feel
When the sacred sequence of patterns reveal

Bridge x2

I try to see the beauty in the destruction of society
Reality so hard, I hope it's just a bad dream
Desire kick started, I wonder weh dis all mean
Confusing puzzle parts are all I can see
But my heart tells me that there is a grand scheme
