Snuff On Digital

Blaqk Audio

Cutting through just like champagne petals
Sprinkled over the blackest sea
Urban stars will shine, electric
They keep on calling as they beckonI'm enamored of the sight
No, everything won't be alright
For me tomorrow, tomorrow
Tomorrow may not comeAscending slowly with hopes of finding
One small moment of clarity
Escape the blackness cast upon me
I still can't see as you bind meMurder me from miles away
I will finish this today for you
Tomorrow, tomorrow
Tomorrow means nothingImmobile lights will fly tonight
We'll watch them pass together
As we part the rising sky
I won't die without youThese breathtaking heights lend sparkling sights
But we won't fall forever
We're tightly bound, we'll chase the ground
I won't die without youDescending quickly with hopes of sharing
All the things you've shared with me
I'll chase the digital eye's below me
Through them you'll see as I fall withDigital omniscient eyes
Capturing me one last time for you
Tomorrow, tomorrow
Tomorrow you will seeImmobile lights will fly tonight
We'll watch them pass together
As we part the rising sky
I won't die without youThese breathtaking heights lend sparkling sights
But we won't fall forever
We're tightly bound, we'll chase the ground
I won't die without youThis is a breakthrough
Oh, forget me not
This is my breakthrough
Oh, forget me notWhen you see me soaring
And the lights are screaming
You'll forget me notWe'll fly tonight
We'll fly tonightImmobile lights will fly tonight
We'll watch them pass together
As we part the rising sky

I won't die without youThese breathtaking heights lend sparkling sights
But we won't fall forever
Tightly bound, we'll chase the ground
I won't die, I won't die, I won't die, I won't die without you
