Lucky Town

Darren Hayes

This time I'll try to love again
And never lose you, my friend
I'll be there till the end forever
This time I'll take the happy pill
I'll chew up more than I can spill
And play until you'll stay forever
And nobody said it would be easy now
We live in a lucky town
But the foundations are shaking
The bridges are breaking in two
And nobody said it would be easy now
I don't wanna let you down
And my heart is a light
It's alright 'cause it's burning for you
And it burns right through
This time I'll try to make believe
Wear my heart upon my sleeve
Just take it when you leave, it's better
This time I'll be the better man
I know the world will understand
This greatness is overrated you see
And nobody said it would be easy now
We live in a lucky town
But the foundations are shaking
The bridges are breaking in two
And nobody said it would be easy now

I don't wanna let you down
And my heart is a light
It's alright 'cause it's burning for you
Well, this time I'll try to love again
This time I'll never lose you my friend
I'll stay until the end
Forever and ever and ever
And nobody said it would be easy now
We live in a lucky town
But the foundations are shaking
The bridges are breaking in two
And nobody said it would be easy now

I don't wanna let you down
And my heart is a light
It's alright 'cause it's burning for you
Nobody said it would be easy now
We live in a lucky town
But my heart is on fire
The bridges are burning for you
Nobody said it would be easy now
I don't want to let you down
And my heart is on fire
And I know it's alright 'cause it's burning for you
Nobody said it would be easy now
We live in a lucky town
