

By Any Means Necessary

Atari Teenage Riot

YeahHow many people like
To see you dying
For no other reasons
Than this?This can't be fought
In a fair way
And if you agree
Raise your fistIllegal protest
For the rest of us
I go fight 'cause
It's the best for usI'm staring at the TV
Like it makes no sense
Your changing definitions
Like it's self-defenseBy any means necessary
By any means necessary
(I can't hear you)
By any means necessary
(And you call that revolution)They consume our lives
Like it's and advert on TV
They sell us a future
That we all ain't going to seeMoral judgments will not do it
They ain't not gonna do it
You better turn it off
And fucking screw 'emBy any means
(By any means necessary)
By any means
(By any means necessary)
By any means necessary
Go, go
