

Just the Night

Peggy Sue

Red light, dark Night
A distant warning
Face down, red lips
Back to the ceiling Got eyes in the back of our heads
In our rear view mirror
Wait for the light to land on whatever's near us
It's just the night that makes me feel Lost in white skin
Dressed dark in morning
Weighed down, wade in
The waters rising
Got eyes in the back of our heads
In our rear view mirror
Wait for the light to land on whatever's near us
It's just the night that makes me feel Forward thinker, backwards sinker
Head like water, swim or falter
Air so thick you can feel it
The air's so thick you can feel it
Red sky, dark night
A distant warning
Fought back the tide
Keep your eyes on the horizon
I'll give it up
I'll train my eyes on you
I'll give it up
I'll train my eyes on you
I'll give it up
