

Katie

Matt Thompson

Katie likes to run around
In cotton panties and a crown
She driving all the boys insane
 Suckin' on a candy cane
She likes to play the tambourine
Her favorite color's army green
 She's a vegetarian
 She's a lovely loaded gun
 Katie has a way
 Of seeing things
 That everybody else
 Is just afraid to dream of
 It's funny how it seems
 But when you look at her
 I swear, you see love
She wears diamonds oh her toes
She lets her belly button show
She puts perfume in her hair
You don't look at her, you stare
 Katie has a way
 Of seeing things
 That everybody else
 Is just afraid to dream of
 It's funny how it seems
 But when you look at her
 I swear, you see love
