

I Gave You All My Life

Brian Melo

You're impersonating anguish
Most of the time
You say that I'm as helpless as a baby
That's how you describe it
Yeah, I don't buy it
No, I don't buy it Every time you put on that dress
Why are you crying?
You know the world is a mess
You say so all of the time
I'm not depressed
I'm still here trying
Let's leave it at this
I gave you all of my You're impersonating strangers
Feeling in danger
Nothing is changing
That's how you describe it
We're undecided
Yeah, I can't fight it Every time you put on that dress
Why are you crying?
You know the world is a mess
You say so all of the time
I'm not depressed
I'm still here trying
Let's leave it at this
I gave you all of my life
Put on that dress
Why are you crying?
You know this world is a mess
You say so all of the time
I'm not depressed
I'm still here trying Let's leave it at this
Let's leave it at this Every time you put on that dress
Why are you crying?
You know the world is a mess
You say so all of the time
I'm not depressed
I'm still here trying
Let's leave it at this I gave you all of my life
I gave you all of my life

I gave you all of my life

I gave you all of my life
