Jidenna

[Intro]

Olualuweaway

Uweaway

No the chief don't run

The chief don't

No the chief don't run[Hook]

Oh the chief don't run

Oh the chief don't run

Oh the chief don't run

Oh the chief don't run

[Verse 1]

Before the red cups and the backwoods smoke

Me and mom in the shack in the woods, bro

I was sleepin' on the floor with the oven door open

While I dreamt about the places that I would go

We were begging 'em to lay up in the foyer

I was sittin' with the hookers in a motel hallway

Waiting onna blind audition like it's Broadway

Now these Madams looking like a fleet of foxes

Rat Pack chief of staff like Sinatra

Eat, drink, swank, nigga that's the mantra

Betta stand when I speak, nigga, fix your posture

Chief don't run, baby, word to poppa

Wanted me to-be-a lawyer, engineer or doctor

The new Godfather, keep your old mobsters

Matter fact, you can keep your old Oscars

It's tomorrow never dies now

I'm on yacht with a prince in Dubai now

I'm with the Dalai Lama's homies in the sky lounge

Cocktails got me loosenin' my tie now

They say a prophet never honored in his homeland

That's fine, I'd rather have my own land

Gotta plan for a hundred Roman numerals

Long live the chief, nigga, welcome to your funeral[Hook]

Oh the chief don't run

Oh the chief don't run

Oh the chief don't run

Oh the chief don't run[Verse 2]

It's my time, hit the gong out here

They gon' need to build a bigger wall out here
I live a different set of laws out here
Know my rights even when I'm in the wrong out here
Look what we did with one song out here
Like a locksmith opened every door out here
Ya dealing with a king, not a kong out here
You a pawn, but we can get along out here
You in my house actin' too free though
We know you foulâ€™nigga, two free throws
Chiefy, chiefy in a new chief cloak
I ain't even said a word, but my suit bespoke
I got a new agenda, gotta carry through
When your father's enemies are tryna bury you
And the royal families are tryna marry you
Long live the chief, nigga, welcome to your funeral[Hook]
Oh the chief don't run
Oh the chief don't run
Oh the chief don't run
Oh the chief don't run[Post-Hook]
Everybody wanna run, they don't want it like us
Paid my dues, but they still tryna Wesley Snipe-us
Tell me why we gon' still win tonight
Breakin' bread, we got everybody right
