Star

Cyclefly

I can feel it
Causing through my veins
Releasing all the mental strain
So many things to do, so many things to say
Wallowing in my pride, waiting another day
And I feel that nothings gonna to change
Believe that, and wash away your pain
So many times i've tried, eating me up inside
So many times i've thought, reason I wasn't born
No I dont need, your dignity
It couldn't stop me, you'll see
And I dont care, I wasn't there
It couldn't block me, you'll see
No I don't need, your dignity
No I don't mind, I couldn't find
Like a star, too far
Like a star, too far
Star, Star, Star, Star, Star, Star, Star
Star, Star
