Dorje

A work in progress, I put this up because there was nothing

Endless dream, floating through shut my eyes, dream of you fool me once, I'll fool you yeah

Achillie's heel, dare you feel

You can't walk, better kneel you don't know because you weren't there and I don't know if you care did you want something

to become nothing

did you want always to be right

Don't you know

Written in the sky

stare through closed eyes

WRITTEN

*intrumental*

Crystalise, your point of view

Don't be afraid, to speak the truth the words you speak will set you free here's the door you don't need the key Achillie's heel, the pain you feel

If you can't walk, you better kneel you don't know cause you weren't there

did you want sometinhg

did you want always to be right

Don't you know

stare thorough closed eyes

Now you're alive

* bass build thingy*

*Spooky guitar breakdown brilliance*

AGGHHHHHH

Did you want something to become nothing

Did you want always to be right

Did you want something to become nothing

Did you want always to be brighter did yuo want something to become nothing

don't you KNOW

stare through closed eyes
