

I Heard It

Justin Hayward

I was driving down a lonely highway
As the sun went down
I pretty a voice right beside me saying
Why don't you turn around?
Why don't you stop feel the wonder
And listen to the soundAnd I heard it I heard it
I heard it, I heard itHave you listened to the bell at midnight
On the still night air
It sets you dreaming of the strangest journey
Across the great somewhere
Then you start the brave adventure
Dreams without a careWell I heard it I heard it
I heard it I I heard itLike leaves borne on the wind
Our words will fade and die
Only to return
As new life by and by
The passions that we feel
Like lovers wild and free
Are footsteps on the sand
Holding back the mighty seaThere's a place a secret garden
And when the day is done
We'll lie among the grass and flowers
Underneath the sun
As we look up the sky is turning
With the earth we're oneWell I heard it I heard it
I heard it I heard itPassion that we feel
Like lovers wild and free
Are footsteps on the sand
Holding back the mighty seaThere's a voice that calls us onwards
Down the lonely street
When we tread the path no longer
The clrcle is complete
A million souls scream in anguish
And others rest in sleepWell I heard it I heard it
I heard it I heard it
Yeah yeahWell I heard it I heard it
I heard it I heard it
