

Clingwrap

Sam Sparro

Have you ever had somebody just come and get all up in your stuff?

Well I'm sure you have, you're very sexy.

Haha, sticky-icky-licky-icky-licky-icky-licky. You seem need a lot of me but baby, no, it just can't be.

Oh no.

Honey, you're just too clingy, hey, and now you need to set me free

C'mon and set me free

You see I went outside just to take a stroll and when I came back I had ten missed calls from you, ooooh

Like when you're walking down the street doing what you do and you step into some gum that's stuck to your shoe, that reminds me of you You must've thought I was your snack, because you're sticking to me like cling wrap, scooby doo be doo be doo doo. (2x) You must've thought you were my wife

because you're trying to run my life

You're causing me a lot of strife

I'm gonna cut you up now let me get my knife

I said where's my knife? Where's my knife?

You see I've got enough friends that could fill a truck up

Now give me some room and just back the fuck up

Like when you're washing your clothes at the laundromatic and you pull them out the dryer and they stick like static that's what you do You must've thought I was your snack because you're sticking to me like cling wrap (2x) You better pull aside, hahahahaha.

I'm gonna need me a pair of pliers

to get you off my back because you've crossed your wires

I need you like I need fifteen spare tires

If I was Donald Trump then I'd say you're fired

It's the cling wrap Yo, it's the cling wrap.

Now see, when people be dropping hints, you better take 'em

It won't matter, before you let yourself go and act all crazy

You must have thought I was your snack

'Cause now you'll stick to me like cling wrap.

Oh, 'cause you love me.

When did you get so crazy?

Ohhhhh

When did you get so crazy?

When did you get so crazy?!La, la, la You're sticky, you're sticky, you're sticky and you're like cling wrap (4x)
