Breathing Is Believing

A Voice Like Rhetoric

While lock and key give wind break
I'll let the dead bury the dead
Stand now proud as chlorophyll
You've been running for so long
(Sever your lie, sever and try)
It's about time
It's about time you caught your (Cut your ties)
You've been living your own self illusions
(Sever your lie, sever and try)
It's about time
It's about time you caught your breath (Cut your ties)
Today's our own black Friday
Now working for the weekdays
To burn our reliquaries
You've been running for so long
(Sever your lie, sever and try)
It's about time
It's about time you caught your (Cut your ties)
You've been living your own self illusions
(Sever your lie, sever and try)
It's about time
It's about time you caught your breath (Cut your ties)
I wear my heart on my sleeve like a scarlet letter
You finally got what you had coming
Its forgiven
Not forgotten
But i'm sure you'll turn around, around, around
I wish i could breath for you
Its hard enough breathing for my...
I wish i could breath for you
Its hard enough breathing for my...
Your letter is post marked with a dying seal
Breathing is believing
