

Secrets

Howling Bells

Lean closer to me, my love
And you can give me these secrets, you keep from me
I wanna see all of you
I wanna see all of you
We'll become one
In this ocean of many
Through each others eyes
The fear will disappear, disappear
I wanna see all of you
I wanna see all of you
The secrets you keep
The lies you speak are only ways to keep us safe
The quiet day, the dead of night
I hear your voice, don't try to fight
