

My Heart Is A Fist

Papa Roach

I surrender
I know I've been a pretender
You can have this guilt, this misery
I wear so well
I wave my flag and sound the alarm
Somebody stop me before I do any harm

I surrender
I know I've been a pretender
I'm living a dead life
I'm staring into the headlights
A get away car that'll take me out
Of my mind tonight
Crash and burn, an S.O.S.
Somebody help me get out
Of this mess of a dead life
I'm burning under the spotlight
My heart is a fist drenched in blood
My soul will fight again
My heart is a fist drenched in blood
My soul will rise again
Take a look at these hollow eyes
One last look before I say goodbye
To this candle-lit nightmare
I feel like I'll never escape
So watch me fall from grace
Watch me carve my hate
In the heart of a lover
I feel I can never escape my fate

My heart is a fist drenched in blood
My soul will fight again
My heart is a fist drenched in blood
My soul will rise again
See You on Your cloud
Looking down
I'm on my knees today
But You don't notice me
See You on Your cloud
Looking down

I'm on my knees today
But You don't notice me
You don't notice me
You don't notice me
You don't notice me
I'm screaming while I pray
While I pray, while I pray
You don't notice me
I'm sick of You
God, I am done with you
See You on Your cloud
Looking down
I'm on my knees today
But You don't notice me
My heart is a fist drenched in blood
My soul fight again
My hear is a fist drenched in blood
My soul will rise again
