

Split Personality

White Trash Cowboys

I'm steppin up to the plate with what is real not what is fake
What you see is what you get no need to contimplate
You will see me Love, You will see me hate
But you will never ever see me act the way that I Aint

You need a little advice you better act like you feel You need to focus all your energy on keeping it real Cause I believe in the truth, and I believe in Pride
I don't believe you life is better when your living out lies

We're all looking for attention
We're all searching for what we need
When people change - and no one acts the same
it a whacked up, kracked up, everybodys jacked up guess what, messed up split personality

Pastor John he's a preaching man Camophlauging his life the best he can until they found 3 kids in his garabe can No one would of ever believed!!

Sweet Jenny More the girl next door was a part time checker at the grocery store with a broadband connection you can see her on the floor and she is taking it off tonight.
a truely unbelievable sight

We're all looking for attention
We're all searching for what we need
When people change - and no one acts the same
it a whacked up, kracked up, everybodys jacked up
guess what, messed up split personality

Then there's Rebbeca Mars the Holywood Star
She got A-list attention and a fancy car
She needs a radar detectar for internal scars Thatr she desperately wants to hide
In the dark of night She aint feeling right
And money can't buy a single friend in sight
She needs a bottle of rum to face her lonely fight

With the demons inside her head, It seems to me she'd rather be dead!

We're all looking for attention everybody's searching for what we need When people change No one acts the same it a whacked up cracked up everybodys jacked up messed up guess what no one wants to fess up my way , your way , Who you gonna to be today Everybodys hiding their Split Personality

I'm steppin up to the plate with what is real not what is fake
What you see is what you get no need to contimplat
You will see me Love, You will see me hate
But you will never ever see me act
