This Momentary

Delphic

We, you and me what is said
Wasn't never meant to hurt
Real stories always come off worse
Can we make the time to leave it behind
And reshape, remake our faith in what we see?How you feel so unsteady?
I'm already out of reach
Remember finding your feetIn a fine time, take the time to find me
I'll be ready waiting let's do something real
Lets do something realWe, you and me what is said
Wasn't ever meant to hurt
Real stories always come off worse
Can we make the time to leave it behind
And reshape, remake our faith in what we see?How you feel so unsteady?
I'm already out of reach
Remember finding your feetIn a fine time, take time to find me
I'll be ready waiting let's do something realLet's do something real
Let's do something real
Let's do something realReal something, real something
Real something, real something
Real something, real something
Real somethingLet's do something
Real something
Real something
Real somethingLet's do something
Real something
Real somethingLet's do something realWe, you and me what is said
Wasn't never meant to hurt
Real stories always come off worse
Can we make the time to leave it behind
And reshape, remake our faith in what we see?How you feel so unsteady?
I'm already out of reach
Remember finding your feetIn a fine time, take the time to find me
I'll be ready waiting let's do something real
Lets do something real
