

Wolves

Bronze Radio Return

Thick fog it hangs, it hangs, in the air
For now, our vision's impaired
We can't see far
But we can see right hereAnd it feels like something is coming
And we've got no time to prepare
And the woods around us are humming
With the howls of a new affair
And are we listening now?[Chorus:]
Now you know you can't fool everyone
Because soon we'll all catch on
That the wolves are back againYou can hide or you can run
Against the grain
But as soon as the thunder comes
All the wolves are back againWe won't be afraid and we won't look away
Because it's happening
We can fight it or invite to stay
And it won't be long
Before the fences are
Taller than our happy homesAnd a beast still has a heart
And it beats real hard
Pumps the blood like a flood
To its open scars
And it'll bleed like you and me
To find out just what we areAnd it feels like something is coming
And I'm glad it's finally here
And it might be worth all becoming
Like the wolves we used to fear
And are we listening now?[Chorus:]
Now you know you can't fool everyone
Because soon we'll all catch on
That the wolves are back againYou can hide or you can run
Against the grain
But as soon as the thunder comes
All the wolves are back againAll the wolves, all the wolves,
Oh they're back, oh they're back
Oh they're back, oh they're back againNow you know you can't fool everyone
Because soon we'll all catch on
That the wolves are back againOh, I'm gonna let them in
Oh, I'm gonna let them in, I am and I am and I am

Oh, I'm gonna let them in
Oh, I'm gonna let them in, I am and I am and I am....
