Not Complaining

Kindred The Family Soul

Last night we tore it up, we fought then we made love
This morning when we woke up,
We just smiled and we both hugged.'Cause that's the type of * that we be going through. I missed a beat and touched your body then I'm back in the groove. that's the thing I love love love about youWhenever I'm and I'm feeling sad, you always remind me of what we have. I don't know what it is but don't you ever change. Got the sweetest way just to make day and I'm not complaining.
(Repeat Chorus)[Aja]:
I trust you with my life. All my days all my nights. You did it cause you said you would. I listened and I understood. Cause that's the kind of stuff you're made of:?, loyalty, respect and then some. You keep me going yes you do. And that's what I love about you.(Hook)
Then
(Repeat hook)Bridge:
[Fatin]: And with time we'll grow more mature and more secure. We know our love's worth fighting for. What are we fighting for?[Aja]: And each day the sun rises, I rise to the ocassion. I'm a work in progress. So baby be... patient~(Hook)
Then
(Repeat hook)
