He Said, She Said

Bell X1

He said, she said
He said, she said
He said, she said
He said, she saidOn the telephone
On the message board
On the toilet wall
Telemarket pollBy sign language
By a pigeon carriage
By pressing red
Fastest thumbs in the westWe're waiting for
Fun, friendship and maybe more
Fun, friendship and maybe moreHe said, she said
He said, she saidWe're waiting for
Fun, friendship and maybe more
Fun, friendship and maybe moreI am the man down
I'm gonna lose my leg
So just gimme the whiskey
And let's go, let's go, let's go, let's goYes, I covet my neighbor's wife
And yes, I covet my neighbor's goods
Don't get too close I might take a swipe
And friendly fire still burnsFriendly fire still burns
Friendly fire still burns
Friendly fire still burns
This friendly fire still burnsHe said, she said
He said, she saidHe said, she said
He said, she saidThis is not a good time
How about the New World Wine
Or a set of shiny steak knives
29.95I went for a video
I came back with a tan
I came back with a tanStill they gazed and their wonder grew
In this world of it might just be you
And watch them slip on the hamster wheel
Tears give good TVThese tears give good TV
These tears give good TV
Tears give good TV
These tears give good TVHe said, she said
He said, she said
He said, she said

He said, she said
