Waiting All Day

Silverchair

Took advantage
Of a straight believing town
That tore the bandage
And said ?Look, who's bleeding now?
Are you listening or are you faithless like the others?
Long days are almost here
Faded signs for you
I'll be waiting all day
I've been waiting all year
For you, it's true
He's been beaten
Might have brought it on himself
So he stopped reading
Every book on mental health
But all's not lost in this tangle like no other
Long days are almost here
Faded signs for you
I'll be waiting all day
I've been waiting all year
For you, it's true
Take this dose and go
Whiskey warm September
The faded sign will show
That he still remembers
Long days are almost here
Faded signs for you
I'll be waiting all day
I've been waiting all year
For you, it's true
Waiting all day
Waiting all year
Waiting all day
Waiting all year
I'll be waiting all day
I've been waiting all year
I'll be waiting all day
I've been waiting all year
I'll be waiting all day
I've been waiting all year

I'll be waiting all day
I've been waiting all year
I'll be waiting all day
I've been waiting all year
I'll be waiting all day
I've been waiting all year
