Polaris

Glass House Point

Midnight appetite, canâ€™t help but salivate my mind
Easy on the eyes, beauty in itâ€™s purest form collides
With our broken parts, like codeine for our hearts
Like codeine for our hearts
Like codeine for our hearts

I donâ€™t wanna think about you anymore, creatures crawling at the back door (oh, oh)
Hungry like a wild fire (oh, oh)
Choking on my desire, yeah
Now I slip into a deep sleep comatose, creature caught me in the wave length (oh, oh)
Burning like a North Star (oh, oh)
Polaris in the deep dark, yeah

Midnight appetite, canâ€™t help but cultivate the crime
Wake up sleepy eyes, darkness falling victim to the light
Itâ€™s a work of art, like codeine for our hearts
Like codeine for our hearts
Like codeine for our hearts

I donâ€™t wanna think about you anymore, creatures crawling at the back door (oh, oh)
Hungry like a wild fire (oh, oh)
Choking on my desire, yeah
Now I slip into a deep sleep comatose, creature caught me in the wave length (oh, oh)
Burning like a North Star (oh, oh)
Polaris in the deep dark, yeah

â€œCome on, lay me down
Donâ€™t you fuck around,â€• she said
As long as we have each other to lean on
As long as we have each other to lean on â€œYou donâ€™t love me now
And we still fuck around,â€• she said
As long as we have each other to feed on
As long as we have each other to feed on

Phantoms stay the same, weâ€™re never looking back to darker days
The wave is yet to crash, like fluid drapes
To cover up the inside part of me

Phantoms donâ€™t you stay the same weâ€™re never looking back to darker days

The wave has yet to crash, like fluid drapes
To cover up the inside part of me

(oh oh oh)

(oh oh oh)

(oh oh oh)

(oh oh oh)

(oh oh oh)

(oh oh oh)
