Son Of Evil

GG Allin

Laying on the floor in a pool of blood and cum
My demons lay beside as I kiss them one by one
Then on that day I met a force that nothing will compare
I was born the son of evil when I fuck the devil thereMy daddy was a powerful soul back in '56
My mother was a virgin when she first felt his prick
Then on August 29th, baby Jesus Christ was born
An alien to the world, he was set out to destroyI'm the son of evil, the God of Fire in Hell
I'm the son of evil, the one you'll never know
As I look into your eyes, you only cry for help
I want to paralyze you 'cause I only love myselfBut when I was reborn from the day I fucked the devil
Nothing will come close to me beacuse I am immortal
Many lives I've lived, and many times I've died
But my soul cannot be stopped, as it's on an endless rideAs I look into your eyes, you see and I see stare
I want to bring you to your knees, destroy your life right there
Put your hand in mine as I take you for a ride
You'll see your life be stripped away, 'cause today your gonna dieI'm the son of evil, the God of Fire in Hell
I'm the son of evil, the one you'll never know
As I look into your eyes, you only cry for help
I want to paralyze you 'cause I only love myselfLaying on the floor in a pool of blood and cum
My demons lay beside as I kiss them one by one
For on that night I met a force that nothing will compare
I was born the son of evil when I fuck the devil thereMy daddy was a powerful soul back in '56
My mother was a virgin when she first felt his prick
Then on August 29th, baby Jesus Christ was born
An alien to the world, he was set out to destroy
An alien to the world, he was set out to destroy
An alien to the world, he was set out to destroy
