

Don't Say You Won't

Alkaline Trio

It's a girl in here, not as sweet as you
It's a guy like me, some bad tattoos
An empty bar filling up with smoke
And I cry in the ashes, I'm 3 days old So please don't say
You won't be going out today
'Cause anywhere I go, won't be anything
If you're not hanging around It's the blackest cloud and it opens up
When I walk outside and I'm all alone
An empty cell, the furnace chokes
When I walk through the door of broken home So please don't say you won't be going out today
'Cause anywhere I go, won't be anything
If you're not hanging around
'Cause anywhere I go, won't be anything
If you're not hanging around Please don't say you won't
Please don't say you won't 'Cause anywhere I go, won't be anything
If you're not hanging around
'Cause anywhere I go, won't be anything
If you're not hanging around
