Christmas Vacation

Bobby Vee

This is a cover of Christmas Vacation by the Decendants
You were depressed
You were really messed up
You know I understand
why did you not talk to me ?
Why dont you help me prepare for the nightmare
And then,
You took a vacation
Into oblivion
You were so low
And I felt like I didn't know you
Christmas Vacation, you took a vacation from me...
Oh oh oh
From me...
Oh oh oh
Once it ended
I mended myself
But it keeps fallin' back down
The shelves in my head
A twinge of pain now
A shudder of disgust
As I shield my eyes
from my own memory
I knew all about your plans
I really did understand
But you didn't let me know

I wasn't invited to go
Christmas Vacation, you took a vacation from me...
Oh oh oh
From me...
Oh oh oh
I watched in desperation
I you stumbled before my eyes
She needs beer, she doesn't need me
I finally realised
My anger and pain in all you fun
Didn't recognise
I stoped caring

Long before you started to cry
I knew all about your plans
I really did understand
But you didn't let me know
I wasn't invited to go
Christmas Vacation, you took a vacation from me...
Oh oh oh
From me...
Oh oh oh
From me...
Oh oh oh
From me...
Oh oh oh
