So Tomorrow (BBC Session)

Barclay James Harvest

So tomorrow, what of tomorrow?
Will the next day find me hiding in my sorrow?
For she's gone now, it won't be long now
Before my heart begins to cry out, I'm alone nowYesterday seemed like I lived in a dream
All that I needed was there
Now that she's gone, there's no sense holding on
I know that I shouldn't careSo tomorrow, what of tomorrow?
Will the next day find me hiding in my sorrow?
For she's gone now, it won't be long now
Before my heart begins to cry out, I'm alone nowYesterday seemed like I lived in a dream
All that I needed was there
Now that she's gone, there's no sense holding on
I know that I shouldn't careSo tomorrow, what of tomorrow?
Will the next day find me hiding in my sorrow?
For she's gone now, it won't be long now
Before my heart begins to cry out, I'm alone nowSo tomorrow, what of tomorrow?
Will the next day find me hiding in my sorrow?
For she's gone now, it won't be long now
Before my heart begins to cry out, I'm alone nowSo tomorrow, what of tomorrow?
Will the next day find me hiding in my sorrow?
For she's gone now, it won't be long now
Before my heart begins to cry out, I'm alone nowSo tomorrow, what of tomorrow?
Will the next day find me hiding in my sorrow?
For she's gone now, it won't be long now
Before my heart begins to cry out, I'm alone now
