Goodbye

Best Coast

My highs are high, my lows are low And I don't know which way to go Every time you leave this house Everything falls apart I can't get myself off the couch I don't wanna talk to anyone else Every time you leave this house Everything falls apart I lost my job, I miss my mom I wish my cat could talk Every time you leave this house Everything falls apart Well, I don't love you and I don't hate you I don't know how I feel I don't love you, I don't hate you I don't know how I feel I don't know how I feel I don't know how I feel And nothing makes me happy Not even TV or a bunch of weed Every time you leave this house Everything falls apart And every time you go away I feel like I could cry But I would never really cry 'Cause you're the worst at goodbyes You're the worst at goodbyes You're the worst at goodbyes Goodbyes, at goodbyes Goodbyes, at goodbyes Goodbyes, at goodbyes Goodbyes, at goodbyes
