Fractured

Scott Matthews

Fractured arms from pulling you up
Your life weighs a ton
Have you had enough?
What is it you want?
You decide
And I'll leave you alone
But not on your ownFractured Heart dented your start
On the plans that you made
But your plans blew away
Now the rocks that hold you
Could be on the rocks that save youBut you're slipping, there's no time now
Where's your fight?
Can you show me how i find a way out?
I'm all out of answersFirst you must trust a stranger and luck
And pull yourself up
But enough is enough
So what do you want?
You decide
But you better be quick
Cause I'm losing gripNow I'm struggling i can't hold on
Where's your fight?
Can you help me? i Don't wanna go now
But I'm all out, I'm all out
