

Run Like the Wind

Barbara Dickson

There's an eagle in the eastern sky turning in the wind
Out across the evening, resting on the wing
If I had the wings of an eagle
There's be no holding me
I'd be free, sailing freeCHORUS:One day soon I'm gonna run like the wind
One day soon
Gonna break away from everything
One day soon
Nothing in the world's gonna pull me back
And nothing's gonna keep me in
Gonna run like the windAnd if you should tell me
You want to hold me down
Before the flow of morning
I'd be gone without a sound
The more you try to keep me here
The less you will succeed
Sailing free, sailing free
CHORUS TO FADE
