Before You Say Goodbye

Noah Young

Cold night nowhere to go
And my heart melts like the snow
Falling from the skies out our window
And we walk outside
Laying in the snow till it runs dry
And I can't speak
I can't believe she's telling me goodbye
And I can't speak
I can't believe she's telling me goodbye
I just hope she's coming back this timeSay I'll make it through one more night
Where I can hold the girl who made my dreams come true
Do it all again. I'll pretend that I can close my eyes
And none of this will end
Oh before she says goodbye againThree months since you've been gone
And she says I should move on
But her and I both knew that's one thing I can't do
And she says she's fine. A thousand miles away you're on my mind
And I can't speak
I can't believe she's telling me goodbye
And now my heart is slowly breaking
And I'm so weak
Just hear me out before you say goodbye
I just hope you're coming back this timeSay I'll make it through one more night
Where I can hold the girl who made my dreams come true
Do it all again. I'll pretend that I can close my eyes
And none of this will end
Oh before she says goodbye againMemories that I thought were so great
She says it's too late, but is it too late?
Does it hurt? Tell me, how does it feel?
Because being hurt never felt so real
Lying down with my face on the floor
Been lying here since she walked out the door
She's killing me tonightAnd I can't speak
She's never coming back I don't know why
And I'm so weak
Just hear me out before you say goodbye
I just hope you're coming back this timeSay I'll make it through one more night
Where I can hold the girl who made my dreams come true
Do it all again. I'll pretend that I can close my eyes

And none of this will end
Say I'll make it through one more night
Where I can hold the girl who made my dreams come true
Do it all again. I'll pretend that I can close my eyes
And none of this will end
Oh before she says goodbye againDon't you say goodbye again (repeated)
